

JUNIOR WILDERNESS Camp Packing List 2017

What to bring:

- Bible (and journal if you're into that sort of thing)
- Clothes that you don't mind getting messed up. Remember, we have a dress code that will be enforced. So make sure your shorts are passed your finger tips and you bring T-shirts not tank tops.
- Ladies: one piece bathing suit, Guys: no speedos or compression shorts please
- SOCKS! Lots of SOCKS!
- Closed toed shoes for all activities (you might wanna bring an extra pair)
- Water bottle or water pack (like a camel pack)
- Sleeping bag (sorry, no hammocks)
- Pillow
- At least 2 towels (one for water recreation and one for shower)
- Toiletries (we aren't doing any beauty pageants, so don't bring a whole lot of makeup and unnecessary stuff)
Keep it basic: tooth brush, travel size tooth paste, deodorant, travel sized bottles of shampoo, conditioner (2in1 stuff works GREAT with this week) and body wash
- Bug spray (strong enough to repel ticks) and sunscreen
- Flashlight
- Camera (not an expensive one though, disposable waterproof would be best)
- Plastic bags (for wet and dirty clothes, etc.)
- Medications (campers will keep inhalers and epi-pens on them at all times...all other medications will be given to the dean for safe keeping. Please be sure to have all medication in a MARKED bottle. NO PILL ORGANIZERS ALLOWED)
- A copy of your insurance card

You may bring if you have:

- Your own bike and helmet (the camp has some bikes and helmets for use, but you may prefer your own.)
- Your own mess kit (If you will use it more than just for camp, you can get one from Wal-Mart or a sporting goods store. The camp also has some, but if you prefer your own, that's fine just be sure to write your name on the bottom of them)

Please do NOT bring the following:

- Electronics of ANY kind, ESPECIALLY cell phones
- Personal belongings that you don't want to get messed up (i.e. stuffed animals, personal keepsakes, jewelry, etc.)
- Weapons of any kind including knives
- Illegal drugs, alcohol, or cigarettes
